THANK YOU!

To the custodian staff for the excellent cleaning job in the washrooms.

To the kitchen staff for all the wonderful meals.

To the administrative staff, pastors, division workers, and volunteers who have worked so hard all week to bless each of us attending Camp Meeting.

To all the musicians for blessing us with your talent.

To Pastor Hodder and the leadership team for their faith to trust God's guidance when they made the decision to FORGE AHEAD ...

Security and Emergency Concerns:

- In the event of a lost child, the Camp will go on lockdown until child is found. Report immediately to security with clothing description and age.
- The river changes yearly and some areas are dangerous. Please do not access the river from the end of township road 342. It is very steep and very dangerous!
- For emergency procedures in case of tornado, fire, etc., please see your Camp Meeting Informational Booklet, page 40.
